

SITE ENVIRONMENTAL INSURANCE PROCESS

1. This section contains:

Package: Site Environmental Insurance Process
Environmental Engineering Philosophy
Environmental Insurance Agents List

2. Owner contacts Environmental Insurance Agent and advises of potential need for site environmental insurance coverage.
3. Owner completes any applications and applicable forms and forwards to agent and/or Insurance Company.
4. Owner selects environmental engineering firm.. Notify Insurance Company of selected firm for approval, if required.
5. Engineering Firm completes a Phase I Site Environmental Assessment in accordance with American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) protocol and other protocol acceptable to Insurance company.
6. Engineer submits 3 copies of Phase I Assessment to Owner.
7. Owner submits Phase I Reports:
1 to DECD and I to Insurance Company with request for quote.
If Phase I Report recommends a Phase II investigation, consult DECD.
8. Insurance Company reviews Phase I Report and Phase II Report, if required, for coverage.
Owner submits a copy DECD
9. Owner consults DECD for acceptance of quotes and date coverage should be effective.
10. Owner notifies Insurance Company of acceptance of quote and requests coverage.